

Joining together – stronger together!

Zurich, July 2024

Joining together - stronger together!

Dear Sir or Madam

The world is in a constant state of flux. It has become even more vibrant and dynamic, and demographic and political changes require a more agile approach in the financial sector.

We are therefore delighted to announce that Amasus Investment Ltd. and G&M Zen Ltd. will be uniting their strengths as of 1 July 2024 to embark on a new future together. The aim of the strengthened "Amasus" is to share our passion, our joy, our broad expertise and our vast experience in the financial world and in offering multi-family office services to all our existing and future clients.

We unite forces to grow stronger together.

We are driving transformation at "Amasus", inspired by our goal: "The Art of Growth". Customers remain at the centre of everything we do. We utilise our size and agility to unleash the full power of our experience in all areas of the business. We continue to offer services of the highest quality and support our customers in realising their full potential.

A basis of trust between customers and employees is very important to us so that we can continue to be there for you in a customer-orientated, flexible and individual way. We deeply value individual cultures and believe that success and autonomy go hand-in-hand with treating each individual with dignity and respect.

We remain as you know us: reliable, friendly, close by and down-to-earth.

Learn more about our journey by visiting <http://www.amasus.ch> or following us on LinkedIn.

Thank you very much for the trust you have placed in "Amasus" or "G&M Zen" for so many years. We are very much looking forward to working with you in the future.

Kind regards
Amasus Investment AG
